KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some
Norway People Know How to Save It

Many Norway people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Norway citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. G. D. Frost, 6 Tucker St., says: "At the time I used Doan's Kidney Pills they helped me wonderfully and I take pleasure in recommending them. My back gave me trouble. There seemed to be a deep seated pain across the center of my back. My kidneys didn't act regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in the family with good results, I thought I would try them and sent to Noyes' Drug Store and got a box. After using them, the trouble left me entirely."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Frost had. Foster-McBurn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Hanson-Blake

The wedding of Nellie Perley Blake and Eugene Akers Hanson was solemnized Thursday evening at the home of the bride on Perley Hill, at 8 o'clock. The bridal couple were unattended and only the relatives and very near friends were present. The bride received many fine gifts.

The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The bride wore a beautiful blue silk dress and the ceremony was performed by Rev.
Walter E. Brooks. Delicate refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

They will make their home at the residence of the groom for the winter, keeping the Perley estate for a summer home.

Those present were the officiating clergyman, Rev. Mr. Brooks of Harrison, Mr.
and Mrs. Leon M. Longley, Doris, Addie, Catherine, Charlotte, and Forrest Longley
all of Norway; Dr. and Mrs. Prentiss J.
P. Blake of Harrison; Cora Longley of Ipswich, Mass.; Mrs. Blanche S. Murch,
Effie S. Murch, and Master Thomas Murch
of Lewiston; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Caswell and Mr. Styles of Harrison.

PORTER

Leonard H. Walker

Leonard H. Walker passed away at the home of his son, Charles, on Thursday, Oct. 1, 1921. The cause of Mr. Walker's death was heart failure and the end came very suddenly. About five years ago, Mr.
Walker lost his eyesight, which made it difficult for him to get about.

Mr. Walker was born September 16, 1848 at Lovell. He was twice married;
his first wife was Phoebe Durgin and Flora G. Durgin was his second wife. His children were Charles, with whom he has been making his home; Sidney, who lives at Baldwin, and George, all three having survived their father, besides another boy
who died in infancy.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Fred Ward on Sunday, Oct.
16. The remains were buried in the family burying ground on the home farm where Mr. Walker passed away.

day where he has purchased a farm.

There was no school Thursday and Friday as the teachers attended the Convention in Portland.

Mrs. Georgie M. Gould.

Mrs. Georgie M. Gould after a long period of ill health, but only one week's confinement to her room, passed out into the Great Beyond, Friday evening, October 21st. Her age was seventy years and death was due to a general breaking up of her health. She leaves to mourn, her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Bertha Durgin, and one grand-daughter Gladys and friends who will always miss the cordial welcome given by her to those visiting the home.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon,
Rev. W. H. Cotton officiating. Two hymns were sung, "Some Time We'll Understand" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus". Interment in Riverside Cemetery, Cornish.

A "Comfy" Home

Linoleum floors will make your home more comfortable. How, you ask?

Linoleum is less trouble to keep clean than other kinds of floors. It is quiet and restful to walk on. It covers up all the cracks in the wood floor, helping to keep the room warm, and eliminating the hiding places of dust and germs.

And you can get a linoleum pattern that will add a great deal to the attractiveness of the room. Let us help you choose a floor of

ACHES AND PAINS--SLOAN'S GETS 'EM!

AVOID the misery of racking pain. Have a bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy and apply when you first feel the ache or pain. It quickly eases the pain and sends a feeling of warmth through the aching part. Sloan's Liniment penetrates without rubbing.
Fine, too, for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, sprains and strains, stiff joints, lame back and sore muscles.
For forty years pain's enemy. Ask your neighbor.
At all druggists—35c, 70c, $1.40.

that it contained a paste that could be used as a binder in the manufacture board and wall board. The resis-after the paste had been made und to contain approximately 10
of high-grade futural, one of the cells in the manufacture of coal facts, ranging from dyestuffs to aphic laboratory materials.

re the World War Germany had only on futural and demanded $23
for the derivative. America can

Roland McAlister visited his sister, Audrey Andrews, Thursday at Lovell village.

Norway High School eleven were no match for Stevens High of Rumford in the game at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon. Norway was outwitted twenty pounds and more to a man, and unable to break the visitors' line. The locals played a snappy game and fought to the finish. Score 47-0.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Pike and Mrs. Mary Simmons of Mansfield, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phil F. Bradbury.

The fire department responded to a call from Box 02 Saturday forenoon for a break on the roof of Mrs. Edna Austin's residence on Main street. Orrington, Cummings and Helen Holmes discovered the fire and a prompt response from the department required only the chemical engine and hand extinguishers. A spark from the chimney is thought to have caused the trouble.

Sixteen ladies of South Paris and Norway have formed a Luncheon Club. They will meet once in two weeks for luncheon and play auction. The members are Mrs. D. M. Stewart, Mrs. George F. Eastman, Mrs. Florence Wright, Mrs. Leslie L. Mason, Mrs. J. G. Littlefield, Mrs. Walter L. Gray, Mrs. Stanley M. Wheeler, Mrs. Franklin Goldsmith, Mrs. B. P. Bradbury, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Albert J. Stearns, Mrs. Hugh Pendexter, Mrs. W. E. Smart, Mrs. L. M. Carroll, Mrs. Stuart Goodwin, Mrs. Stephen O. Jellerson. The first meeting was held with Mrs. D. M. Stewart at her home on the north side of the city of South Paris and the next one will be held with Mrs. B. P. Bradbury of Norway.

F. W. Walker has sold the Norway bus line to Charles N. L. Walker, who recently moved to South Paris from Harrison. Ted Young continues as driver or as the new owner is otherwise employed.

Carl Schenk has bought the Fred Morse place, so called, on the southern side of Highland Avenue, Pike Hill. The transfer was made Tuesday forenoon. The place contains about six acres with fruit trees and comfortable buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Schenk will make this their home here about Christmas.

Mrs. Orpha Ring and Miss Gammon of West Paris have been spending a few days with Mrs. W. H. Noyes. Mrs. John Penley was also a dinner guest of Mrs. Noyes recently.

M. L. Scribner of Winchester, Mass., who is visiting relatives in Otisfield, was in town, Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Canwell brought to the Advertiser office, October 28th, two good sized dandelion blossoms picked that day.

SOUTH PARIS

L. H. Daughraty Seriously Injured

L. Howard Daughraty of South Paris was knocked down and run over by an automobile on the State Highway Saturday forenoon, some five miles below Norway. He was removed to his home in a critical condition, suffering from broken ribs, a crushed chest and injuries to the skull and brain.

The accident occurred opposite the Charles house as he was filling the radiator of his car. Walking across the highway with the empty pail, he was struck by a Studebaker touring car, owned by Lella Tebbets of Auburn and driven by Florence Hastings of Auburn. With the driver were Mrs. D. R. Hastings also of Auburn and Miss Tebbets. Mr. Daughraty was dragged or hurled some fifty feet and picked up unconscious. Dr. H. L. Bartlett of Norway was soon on the spot and rendered first aid until the ambulance could remove the patient to his home in Market Square.

Mr. Daughraty is well known in South Paris and vicinity, having been employed a number of years as tinsmith at Richardson's hardware store, and for some time as mechanic at F. B. Pugs' garage. At the home the injured man was attended by Drs. Bartlett and Bradbury, who could give little encouragement to the family after a careful examination of his injuries. Miss Hastings assisted materially in promptly securing a trained nurse.

An improvement in his condition was observed Sunday, and unexpected strength seemed to indicate at least a fighting chance.

The Paris Advertising Co., W. P. Morton, manager, is located in the basement of the Maxham Block. Theda Thayer has a meat market in the basement vacated by Mr. Morton.

A large number of Paris students sang in the School Festival, rendering "Bohemian Girl" at Portland, Thursday morning. Among the number were Hester Ordway, Laura Brooks, Georgia Young, Louise Abbott, Doris Judd, Marion Wheeler, Mippie Keniston, Hazel Maxim, Christine Turner, Miriam Robertson, Dorothy Dennison, Charlotte Cole, Ralph Cutting, Bert Starbird, Arthur Brooks, Lewis Woodworth, Donald Greene, Stanley Greene, Bernard Jackson, Wilbur Miller, From West Paris High School: Olga McKen, Dorothy Wardwell, Louie Peabody, Margaret Lane, Helen Packard, Edith Emery, Henry Stone, Merle Lurvey, Albert Penley.

The Atlantic Line!A FURNACE FOR EVERY HOUSE WHERE A FURNACE IS NEEDED

We are still selling the old and reliable Atlantic Line of Furnaces, Ranges and Heating Stoves. This line is well known in all this region, but we still ask attention to some features in which it differs from others.

THERE IS A FURNACE FOR EVERY INDIVIDUAL CASE

Furnaces to burn wood. Furnaces to burn coal. Furnaces to burn either wood or coal. Pipeless Furnaces and Furnaces with any number of hot air pipes. We ask special attention to some features of the Pipeless Furnace. Here are some of them: EXTRA LARGE RADIATOR, made of heavy, rust-resisting iron; LONG RETURN FLUE, giving great heating surface. A CLEANOUT DOOR AT BACK OF RADIATOR, also another door in the outer casing, for the recovery of articles that may be dropped through the register.

The Inner Casing is three-ply, two sheets of galvanized iron, with an interlining of corrugated, air-cell asbestos.

Special Double Cup Joints in radiator, make a construction absolutely gas tight and smoke tight even after years of service.

Call and see the furnace on exhibition at our store, or ask for descriptive circular, which will be mailed on application.
